EDUCATION LIAISON PROGRAM WORKER

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Education Liaison Program Worker is a full-time, professional term position. The Education Liaison Worker will work within a culturally competent system of care and as such will acknowledge and incorporate, at all levels, the importance of culture, the expansion of cultural knowledge, and the overall vision of Weechi-It-Te-Win Family Services and the nine area First Nations we service.

The goal of the Education Liaison program is to improve educational outcomes for children and youth receiving services from their First Nation and in turn Weechi-it-te-win Family Services. Education Liaisons will coordinate educational supports and provide culturally responsive system navigation support for eligible children and youth in conjunction with their Community Care Team.

Education Liaison Worker will help to resolve issues that impact eligible children and youth's learning, and strengthen relationships among societies, public school boards, First Nations school authorities, and community partners in order to improve the educational outcomes of eligible children and youth.

The Education Liaison Program Worker will foster cultural awareness through active participation in an inductive learning process, gaining an understanding of historical trauma and impacts of oppression and how these relate to current issues regarding academic needs of First Nations children and youth, advocate for better success strategies for the over-all success and healthy outcomes for our area children and youth.

Depending upon the nature of the student's needs, the emphasis of the job responsibility will focus on providing a liaison between the children's and youth home community and school for Aboriginal students, in addition to academic assistance and tutoring from a culturally based perspective and cultural support.
